REMINDER: There is a mandatory course walk for ALL Young Rider and Pony Races. Young Rider, Large, and Medium jockeys will walk their course at 10:00 AM. Smalls and Shetlands will walk immediately after the first group. ALL ENTRIES MUST SIGN A WAIVER BEFORE FRIDAY. In addition to waivers, all entry fees must be paid to US Pony Racing ($30 per race venmo to @usponyracing) in advance before you may pick up your saddletowel from the USPR truck/trailer. Please return saddletowels where you picked them up when you are finished and do not remove the tape from the back. All entries should also have a negative current coggins.

Young Rider Flat entries may NOT USE the jockey tents for the sanctioned races unless they are also riding in a sanctioned race on the day. Please change at your trailer. The young rider race is catch weights, so no weighing in or out. Racing tack may be used, overgirth required, as is safety vest and approved helmet. Approved NSA padded sticks may be used.

Pony entries are required to have an approved helmet, safety vest, safety stirrups, overgirth and neck strap. NO sticks or spurs permitted. Entries must go to the start only aided by race course staff.

Young rider and pony entries may not go into the NSA stabling area, including the owners luncheon tent unless you have specific NSA accreditation to be there. You are welcome to stay and watch the races after your run as long as your ponies are secured in your trailer.

Young rider and pony entries may NOT go into the NSA stabling area, including the owners luncheon tent unless you have specific NSA accreditation to be there. You are welcome to stay and watch the races after your run as long as your ponies are secured in your trailer. There will be a kid zone and merchandise and food vendors.

Trailers should use YELLOW GATE 3 and cars should use BLUE GATE 2. Passes coming via email to all entrants.
